- An elegant armchair for optimal comfort

The Mercato armchair allows the user to relax further by reclining into a comfortable position. Simply release the side latch to tilt the backrest and raise the leg rest. Users will feel as if they are lying in bed. To return to the upright position, simply sit back. No lift function. Confort is guaranteed by a PU foam seat and footrest (density 22 kg/m3, hardness 70), PU foam armrests (density 18 kg/m3, hardness 70) and a backrest filled with hollow polyester fibres. The seat is suspended on a foam spring base for added comfort and elasticity.
Available in chocolate-coloured imitation leather and mouse grey mottled fabric.
